Dear Ms. De Jackmo;

It is with great pleasure I announce that the Custodial Support Foundation is donating fifty (50) subscriptions to our Collection Program to Alternatives to Domestic Violence, who are unemployed. These subscriptions will be provided at no cost to enable custodial parents, who are owed arrears to receive investigative, legal, and collection services to recover their child support arrears. It is clear that our clients' needs frequently intersect financially and emotionally. We believe that making this contribution will enhance the lives of custodial parents in your program, and benefit the children affected by family violence.

The Custodial Support Foundation applauds the work done in the protection of domestic violence victims by Alternatives to Domestic Violence and look forward to future collaboration with your agency.

Very truly yours,
