Dear Mr Patterson;

I want to personally express my satisfaction with the services of the Custodial Support Foundation and its Collection Program. Within one week of subscribing to the Collection Program, I was able to receive an attorney and an investigative report, which contained an asset report, location report and a credit report.

The Attorney Alexandra Stremmer, who was provided by the Custodial Support Foundation was able to immediately provide legal services, which included negotiating against the attorney retained by the noncustodial parent of my child.

The services provided by the Custodial Support Foundation would have cost thousands through another attorney or agency, and I am not sure I would have received the level of service provided to me. I believe every custodial parent owed child support arrears should subscribe to the Custodial Support Foundation's Collection Program. I was so impressed with the services that I have decided to become a child support advocate and promote this program.

Sincerely,
